

Announcement of New Journal and Call for Contributions

Malmö University, in Sweden, and idrottsforum.org, the Nordic sport science web forum, are proud to announce a new academic journal in the field of sport studies, Nordic Sport Studies Forum (NSSF, www.sportstudies.org).

Editor: Dr. Kjell E. Eriksson, Malmö University
Assistant Editors: Dr. Karin Book and Dr. Ingela Kolfjord, Malmö University

Nordic Sport Studies Forum is a peer reviewed journal published online, and available free of charge in accordance with the emerging new concept for scientific publishing, Open Access. The Journal is discipline neutral, accepting original theoretical and empirical research contributions from any and all academic disciplines within the humanities and social sciences, including, but by no means limited to, sociology, psychology, pedagogy, economy, law, media studies, ethnology, philosophy, history, cultural studies, gender studies, leisure studies.

Given the multi-disciplinary approach, there are few submission guidelines. Articles should not exceed 7000 words. Manuscripts should be sent to the Editor in compliance with the conditions necessitated by the anonymous review process. Further details are available on the journal's homepage, www.sportstudies.org.

The Editorial Board especially encourages Nordic scholars to contribute to this first peer reviewed academic sport studies journal in the Nordic countries; however, author nationality is not a selection criteria, and the journal publishes articles in English as well as in Danish, Norwegian or Swedish.
